This annual report aims to capture some of the treasured moments and decades-long traditions in our community that are continuously made possible by so many of our generous donors. The 2022-2023 fiscal year was a special one in Camphill Village; we celebrated Rochelle Sternthall's 60th anniversary—the first such milestone we've had here since our founding in 1961. Rochelle's mastery of the loom, her love of sharing a home with babies and small children, and the many friendships she's nurtured are all experiences that have been enriched by the many traditions that Rochelle has shaped and passed down to others in our community.

We're inspired by Rochelle and the members of her generation who have guided Camphill Village to where it is today with the help of your generosity. It's with gratitude that we age with Rochelle and our other peers here in Camphill Village, and it's with so much joy that we greet younger community members who have so many fulfilling moments in store.

To Our Friends, Family Members, and Supporters

I am pleased and honored to have been appointed to this leadership position on the Camphill Village Copake Board of Directors. I succeed, but do not replace, Gabriella Sperry—who I wish to thank for her dedication and tireless work for the Village. We are fortunate that Gabriella continues as an active and vital board member. Gabriella led our board through some very difficult hurdles and to many great successes—through the pandemic, identifying changemaking opportunities for alternative funding, and bringing great talent onto our board of carefully selected members. Our community and I are grateful to Gabriella for the time and imagination she has dedicated to Camphill Village.

I am the brother of Tammy Berman, who has lived in the Village for 29 years. Our father, the late Joel Berman, was a board member for many years. My family and I have watched Tammy live a most fulfilling life surrounded by friends who support her amid the very special traditions of this community. I bring the gratitude of our whole family who has spent these years visiting Tammy at her home in the Village, and meeting her wonderful peers and housemates—all of which guide her to unfold her gifts. In this role, I promise to draw from my years presiding over a successful family business, experience in philanthropy, and a lifetime of traditions with Tammy and Camphill Village.

One of the great many strengths of this community has been its ability to look ahead—not just as visionaries who seek a holistic and integrated life for people of all abilities, but in the Camphill Movement’s consideration of the whole human being at every stage of life. As we observed the aging demographic at the Village, a dedicated group came together to create Camphill Ghent 20 miles to our north in Chatham over a decade ago. Since 2012, the residents of Camphill Ghent have been creating community around the social and physical needs of an aging group that benefits from a slower pace within a Camphill community.

At our June board meeting, in order to best support the goals and aspirations of both Camphill Ghent and Camphill Village Copake, the boards of directors of each organization voted to merge our boards. This was done with a view toward effective planning and communication between our communities while maintaining separately operating corporations. This was an essential move, in order to allow us to work more closely together to provide a continuum of care for our loved ones as they progress through the stages of life—and their care needs change—in a Camphill environment.

Many of our readers are our family members—our greatest and most dedicated benefactors. As Tammy’s brother, I’ve been so grateful for the discerning insight and care with which the leadership and residents of Camphill Village navigated the first wave of the pandemic. In the absence of a playbook, this community kept Tammy, and so many others, safe during a wave of illness that shook more traditional group homes and nursing facilities to their core and led so many to reevaluate their daily routines. Camphill’s efforts and health outcomes for all the residents were exceptional. I and my family’s faith in Camphill Village’s ability to adapt is continuously renewed.

While I can only hope to fill the shoes of those who came before me, I will always keep the traditions and the many facets that make Camphill Village extraordinary at the forefront of our board’s discussions as they relate to policy, operations, and funding. I look forward to updating our readers on our progress a year from now.

With well wishes for a productive year,

Jan Berman
Chair

Dear Friends and Families,

We are so thankful that you have kept Camphill Village in your hearts while experiencing financial shifts in your own households, foundations, and businesses. Like you, throughout the 2022-2023 fiscal year, Camphill Village was challenged by cost increases in just about every realm of our operating budget. Because of you, we met our increased goal.

Several years ago, we developed a three-year strategic plan that identified goals and objectives that would help guide us from 2019 through 2021. Needless to say, we were challenged in many ways in the second half of the plan's term, but our generous supporters were with us all the way. Over the last few years, families especially have expressed their support and gratitude for the exceptional work and commitment of this community's residents and its administration. I consider myself truly fortunate to have led our board of directors as president since 2018, and am delighted to pass the baton to Jan Berman, a longtime board member and Village family member.

I look forward to working with our newly expanded board of directors to ensure the highest standards for the residents of Camphill Village now and in the future.

With thanks,

Gabriella Sperry

Dear Friends, Families, and Generous Supporters,

For a long time, we've referred to your gifts as supporting the things that make Camphill Village remarkable. While every single person, season, meal, and milestone in our community is indeed special, it is also the traditions of Camphill Village that are upheld by your generosity. These traditions that compose such a meaningful part of Village life have been celebrated here in Copake for decades, as well as elsewhere throughout the Camphill Movement.

Many of our seasonal festivals and customs—like the springtime running of the cows or the creative rooster-shaped breads we carry on Palm Sunday—are the result of a more encompassing Camphill tradition that brings people from different continents together to create an enriching place where care and home life are informed by many different cultures and experiences. The residents of Camphill Village thrive in this colorful community where people of all abilities participate in and pass down these traditions to newer community members. The value in sharing a picnic blanket in a grassy field on dozens of summer evenings over a lifetime, or removing a roll of fabric that took months to create on a loom, is invaluable. Yet it requires charitable giving, and it is made possible by your generosity.

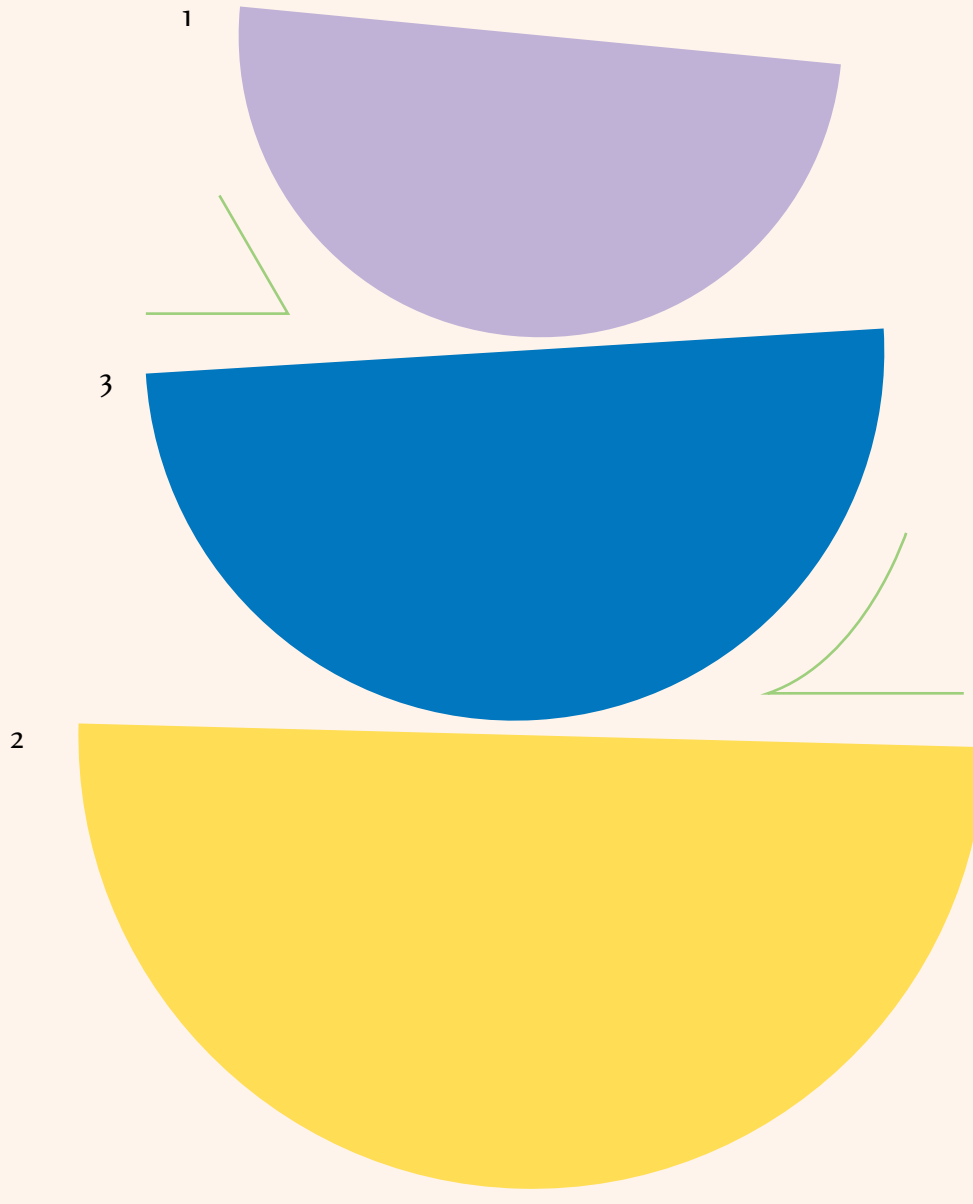

We are so grateful to our donors who keep our community members in your hearts throughout the year—many for decades. Your continuous support of this community's people and vision are deeply appreciated. Thank you for supporting the traditions that engage and challenge us, and bring this community together. These traditions—our memories of them and the way they evolve—truly make Camphill Village special.

With appreciation,

Roman Gerhard
Executive Director

Traditions

Although there are so many moving parts in our busy Village life—the changing seasons, new housemates, shifting work schedules—our days are largely shaped by the traditions that have remained constants in our community for decades.

The pages in this report depict just some of the many traditions that engender connection and reinforce our daily and seasonal rhythms in Camphill Village. Within each of these traditions is an opportunity to gather, whether you're one of a group of bakers surrounded by the unmistakable aroma of nutmeg and figs during the holidays, or a farmer looking forward to a hearty breakfast after an early morning of milking in the barn.

These invaluable traditions are made possible by our generous donors. Your charitable gifts do so much more than fund an operating budget; you are providing opportunities for reliable, enhanced social connection. Your gifts create special moments, where our community members who have lived here for decades can pass down the customs they hold dear to new members of our community—who will one day do the same.

We thank you, and invite you to enjoy the traditions old and new that are featured in this 2022-2023 annual report.

Farmers' Breakfast

While most of our community members are just sitting down for breakfast before a busy day, our farmers have already walked our dairy herd from the pasture into the milking room of our dairy barn. While milking is underway, a dedicated household crew prepares a hearty breakfast. A spread of fresh bread and jam, homemade yogurt, fruit, muesli, and coffee awaits the farmers, who wake up in separate households at first light, but bless their meal together.

Bicycling

Camphill Village is largely a walking community, with paved pathways that run through our forests for ease of travel from households to workspaces. The Ring Road and Camphill Road in our community are shared by cows, wheelchairs, cars, and bicycles. Some of our bakers use their bicycles to deliver bread to households, and others use them to get where they need to go swiftly, safely, and independently.

Crafts

The crafting landscape in our community is continuously evolving. We've created batik art with melted wax on silk, as well as stained glass to brighten our indoor spaces. Our doll shop and enamel shop are long closed, and our bookbindery has progressed into a paper crafts studio full of creativity and conversation. The enjoyment and necessity of our craft work have fostered some of the most notable traditions associated with our community. We rely on our beeswax candle shop to bring a bright flame to our meals, and the reusable handwoven napkins from our weavery are colorful, personal, and sustainable. Our vegetable, seed, and herb gardens provide wholesome ingredients for our meals and holistic remedies. These are just some of the spaces where we are unfolding our gifts together for the benefit of one another.

Holy Week

Our traditions around the spiritual festivals provide so many reasons to craft, bake, perform plays, and gather throughout the year. Holy Week has always been a special time in Camphill Village. We spend the days preceding Easter decorating eggs that we hang above our dining room tables. We gather on Palm Sunday for a procession inspired by our friends from the Netherlands, holding crosses decorated with greenery, ribbons, and fresh bread we've baked in the shape of a rooster—a symbol of light emerging. On Easter Sunday, we gather early for our sunrise service, and enjoy a social Easter brunch with pretty cakes, salads, fruit, and more.

Picnics

Neighborhood lunch, festival celebrations, and a bit of nice weather are all reasons why we enjoy dining outdoors as much as possible. A few salads and sandwiches packed in our kitchens in summer, or a sweater and a pitcher of freshly pressed apple cider in the fall, make for a lovely reason to gather beside the Hall Pond or elsewhere overlooking our beautiful grounds.

Maple Syrup

Our households hold dear the day they receive freshly bottled maple syrup each year, but we also look forward to gathering for a big maple syrup breakfast in celebration of the year's sap runs coming to an end. The weeks before we end our maple season are a community-wide effort where free time is spent under the guidance of the Estate Crew, transferring dripping sap from the metal collection buckets hanging on our sugar maples to large holding tanks that are delivered to our sugar house. For many years, the Village sugar house was much smaller, and located near our Co-op. Our wood-fired sap boiler provided a lot of warmth in late winter, and we've always enjoyed sweetening our yogurts, granolas, and teas with our syrup. Several years ago, our community was able to build a solid timber frame sugar house using larch wood from our property. Our boiler is still wood fired, and is capable of boiling more sap each season. Our sugar house will last a lifetime, thanks to the generous donors that supported this cherished tradition during a transformative capital campaign.
